

L&E GLOBAL

THE GOLD STANDARD FOR LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW.

L&E Global is the worldwide leader for cross-border labour and employment law services. Our member firms provide specialised, business focused advice on global HR law matters. We deliver real value, because we are committed to the client's needs ahead of everything else, in order to help you achieve your objectives.

Our member firms have been working in their respective markets for decades, which means we understand the culture, the economic context, the local legal landscape and the history.

Our member firms counsel clients across a variety of sectors and industries, from large multinational corporations to entrepreneurial and emerging companies seeking to enter international markets. We are used to working with businesses at all stages of growth and development in local and international markets. Clients have described their experience working with L&E Global alliance members as follows:

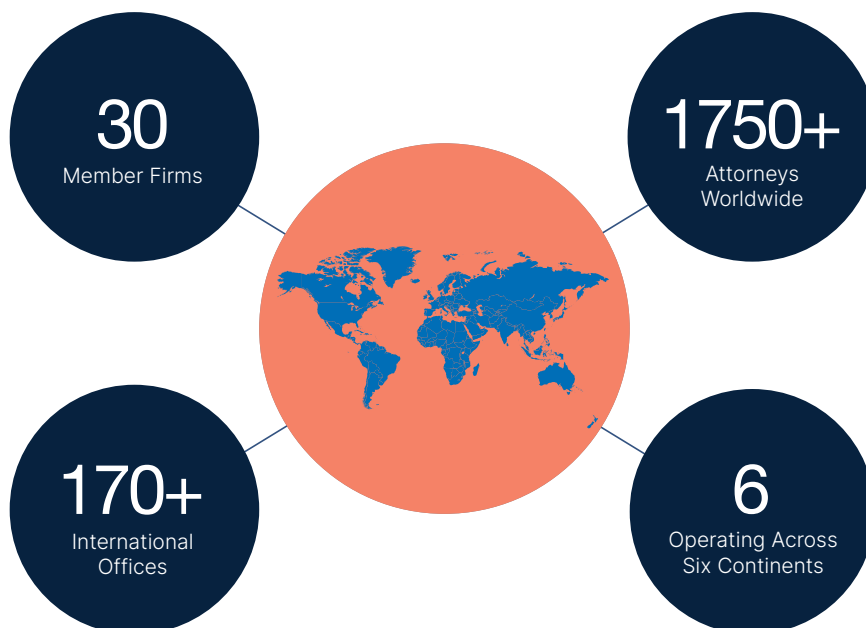

“Their lawyers are very client-oriented, accessible and practical”

“Their lawyers are very personally engaged, creative and solution oriented”

“Their lawyers provide innovative solutions to complex problems”

- Chambers & Partners

Understanding your business needs and recognising the issues specific to your industry, is essential for our member firms to provide you with the sound commercial advice required to solve challenges and explore opportunities. We look forward to working with you.
